

TRANSITIONING AN EXISTING COMPANY LICENSE

To submit a transition request through NMLS, follow the steps below. Note that the Company Filing (MU1) is intended to be completed with your corporate location information. The state regulator will review your transition request, update the License Status, and may set License Items requesting additional information through NMLS. Should you need a branch transition, those requests must be submitted by filing a Branch (MU3) Form and Individual transition requests must be submitted by filing an Individual (MU4) Form.

How to Prepare:

- Locate your Company Transition Checklist on the NMLS Resource Center
 - Visit the State Licensing Page
 - Select your state from the map of the United States
 - Locate your company license type - Any questions related to the type of license you wish to transition should be directed to the appropriate state agency
 - Select the Transition to NMLS link under Requirements Checklist

The Transition Checklist provides information to help you understand your regulator's requirements for completing the Company (MU1) Form in NMLS. The checklist also includes the requirements your regulator requires to be submitted outside NMLS in order to complete your transition request.

Each individual identified will need to establish an individual account and attest to the biographical information entered in the Individual (MU2) Form.

NOTE: Do not direct the Control Person or Qualifying Individual to create an individual account until you have identified them on the appropriate section of the Company (MU1) filing. By the company initiating this action, Company Access will be granted automatically.

15. After all MU2 Statuses display “Attested”, click the Attest and Submit link from the left navigation panel (see the table below for status definitions).
16. If all completeness checks pass, click the Attest and Submit button to submit the filing. If there are sections listed that require action to be taken, select each section listed and complete the action required as appropriate.

17. Once your filing is submitted, be sure to review all items listed on the Transition Checklist as noted in the “How to Prepare” section above.
