SOLE PROPRIETOR PROVISIONAL LICENSE: Because COVID-19 has caused mortgage broker examinations to be temporarily unavailable, the Arizona Department of Insurance and Financial Institutions, pursuant to Executive Order 2020-17, is making provisional (approved-conditional) licenses available to individuals who meet all license requirements other than passing the mortgage broker exam. In accordance with the Executive Order (see criteria on following page):

- A provisional (approved-conditional) license expires six months after the date issued;

- Once mortgage broker examinations are available, the Department shall notify each provisional (approved-conditional) license-holder by e-mail. It is essential that the provisional license-holder keeps their e-mail address up-to-date and regularly checks e-mail.

- A provisional (approved-conditional) license-holder shall have 20 days after the e-mail notification to pass the pre-license examination unless no mortgage broker examination is available within the 20-day period, in which case, the license-holder shall pass the pre-license examination when it is next available;

- A provisional (approved-conditional) license of a person who fails to pass the examination within the period prescribed in the preceding paragraph shall be automatically suspended pursuant to Executive Order 2020-17, which will require the person to immediately cease conducting business requiring the license.
A provisional (approved-license) license, whether active or suspended, shall be converted to an approved license once the provisional license-holder passes the exam.
