Instructions

Delaware does not require advance notice. Make the changes in NMLS as of the effective date and submit supporting documentation as instructed in the checklist below.

Fees

- Delaware does not collect fees for changes not associated with ownership (name, address, control persons, etc.)

- Changes of direct or indirect owners are considered changes of control and require a new application, handled as indicated below.
  - Make the changes in NMLS as amendments. Delaware uses the information in these amendments as the change of control application.
  - Mail the investigation and licensing fees directly to the Delaware Office of the State Bank Commissioner (Total of $750 per licensed location).

- All fees collected through NMLS ARE NOT REFUNDABLE.

How to submit Agency specific documents

1. If you are required to upload document(s) on NMLS for an Advance Change Notice:
   a. In the NMLS document upload section; you must select Advance Change Notice for document type.
   b. Documents required to be uploaded through Advance Change Notice are considered proposed documents. You will be required to upload final documents in the NMLS document upload section under the appropriate document type on the effective date. If there isn’t a document type available for a specific Advance Change Notice event you must mail document(s) directly to Delaware Office of the State Bank Commissioner.

2. If you are required to upload documents for an amendment that doesn’t require Advance Change Notice:
   a. In the NMLS document upload section, select the applicable document type.

3. If you are required to provide document(s) outside of NMLS:
   a. You must mail the document(s) along with the checklist within 5 business days to the following address:
