Instructions

When making changes to your record in NMLS Idaho requires an advance change notification (ACN) for some changes, see checklist below for details. All information required at initial application is required to be updated and filed with the Department of Finance as necessary to keep the information current.

Fees

1. Idaho does not collect amendment fees for any changes. However, any change that results in a new application such as merger, certain changes of ownership, etc., will incur new application fees.

2. All fees collected through NMLS ARE NOT REFUNDABLE.

How to submit Agency specific documents

1. If you are required to upload document(s) on NMLS for an Advance Change Notice:
   a. In the NMLS document upload section; you must select Advance Change Notice for document type. Note: You should use the recommended filing naming convention. Refer to the ACN page in NMLS.
   b. Documents required to be uploaded through Advance Change Notice (ACN) are considered proposed documents. You will be required to remove proposed documents and upload final documents in the NMLS document upload section under the appropriate document type on the effective date. If there isn’t a document type available for a specific Advance Change Notice event you must email or mail document(s) directly to the Idaho Department of Finance.

2. If you are required to upload documents for an amendment that doesn’t require Advance Change Notice:
   a. In the NMLS document upload section, select the applicable document type.

3. If you are required to provide document(s) outside of NMLS:
   a. You must mail the document(s) along with the checklist within 5 business days to the following address:

   For U.S. Postal Service:
   Idaho Department of Finance
   Consumer Finance Bureau
   PO Box 83720
