Who is required to have this license?

Any person (individual, partnership, limited liability company, limited partnership, corporation, association, or other group) engaged in joint business activities, however organized) who closes a mortgage loan, advances funds, offers to advance funds, or makes a commitment to advance funds to a borrower under a mortgage loan for compensation or gain. Licensed lenders may also broker mortgage loans by accepting or offering to accept or soliciting or offering to solicit, applications for residential mortgage loans, negotiating terms or conditions, issuing mortgage loan commitments or interest rate guarantee agreements, or engaging in table funding, whether such acts are done through contact by telephone, electronic means, mail, or in person with borrowers or potential borrowers. In addition, licensed lenders may also service residential mortgage loans; a separate servicer license is not required. Furthermore, applicants may request authorization to conduct reverse mortgage activity during the initial lender application process, or after, being approved as a lender by the Commissioner of Banks; a separate reverse mortgage license is not required. Please see the Mortgage Lender Amendment Checklist for specific details on amending the application to include reverse mortgage activity. The North Carolina Secure and Fair Enforcement Mortgage Licensing Act (“NC SAFE Act”) defines “make a residential mortgage loan” as follows: to advance funds, to offer to advance funds, to make a commitment to advance funds to a borrower under a mortgage loan, or to fund a residential mortgage loan. "Residential mortgage loan or mortgage loan" means any loan made or represented to be made to a natural person or persons primarily for personal, family, or household use that is secured by a mortgage, deed of trust, or other equivalent consensual security interest on a dwelling located within this State or residential real estate upon which is constructed or intended to be constructed a dwelling.

Who does not need this license?

- Any agency of the federal government or any state or municipal government granting mortgage loans under specific authority of the laws of any state or the United States.
- Any employee of a licensee whose responsibilities are limited to clerical and administrative tasks for his or her employer and who does not solicit borrowers, accept applications, or negotiate loan terms on behalf of the employer.
- Any person authorized to engage in business as a bank, subsidiary of a bank, credit union, savings institution, farm credit system, their officers and employees, under the laws of the United States, this State, or any other state, upon filing and confirmation of a claim of exemption.
- Any licensed real estate agent or broker who is performing those activities subject to the regulation of the North Carolina Real Estate Commission unless the real estate agent or broker receives compensation of any kind in connection with the referral, placement, or origination of a mortgage loan.
- Any person who, as seller, receives in one calendar year no more than five mortgages, deeds of trust, or other security instruments on real estate as security for a purchase money obligation.
