GENERAL INFORMATION

Who Is Required to Have This License?

The Rhode Island Currency Transmitter License was created to take the place of both the Rhode Island Electronic Money Transferors and Sale of Check License. Any entity who holds either of those two license types, will be required to transition to the Rhode Island Currency Transmitter License by December 31, 2019.

In addition, any entity that maintains control of virtual currency or facilitates transactions involving virtual currency on behalf of others is required to obtain the Rhode Island Currency Transmitter License. Please refer to the Rhode Island Currency Transmissions Act for more information.

Activities Authorized Under This License

This license authorizes the following activities...

- Electronic money transmitting
- Issuing or selling money orders or drafts
- Issuing or selling prepaid access/stored value
- Virtual currency exchanging and trading services

The Rhode Island Division of Banking does not issue paper licenses for this license type.

Document Uploads Guidance

Documents that must be uploaded to the Document Uploads section of the Company Form (MU1) in NMLS are indicated in the checklist below. When uploading documents:

- Follow the guidance in Document Upload Descriptions and Examples.
- Only upload documents relevant to the company application.
- Only upload documents where there is a selectable document category. If inappropriate documents are uploaded that should not be, you will be contacted by your regulator and asked to remove them from NMLS.

- Do not upload the same company documents multiple times. Generally, unless the document is state-specific, if the document has already been uploaded for another state, a new upload is not required unless changes have been made.
- If a document previously uploaded has been revised, delete the old document and replace it with the new document (history of the old document will remain in NMLS).
- For state-specific documents (e.g., Surety Bonds), be sure to indicate the applicable state.
